RACE TRACK, MONMOUTH PARK.
July 3.—The attendance at Monmouth Park today was not up to the mark.
The number of persons present did not exceed 7,000, and the management completely expected to open to a house of fully twice that many.

Monmouth Park is such a vast place and its grand stand and betting ring are so immense that even a very large crowd makes very little impression on the inexperience. Still, from the fact that the day was practically a holiday, it was disappointing that the attendance was not larger.

The weather was charming.
The rather cool sea breeze was tempered in passing over three miles of farm lands, so that it was just cool enough to be delightfully refreshing.

The track was in superb condition, and the whole place as bright and clean as a new pin.

Scratching reduced the first race to a field of three. Stirocco was carded as a starter, and Doggett wished out to ride the horse. He did not put in an appearance, and the race was a foregone conclusion. The second race was a straight heat, and the management ordered a correction. This left Kingston, Ver-dine and Correction in the race.

Kingston, notwithstanding his poor race at Sheepshead Bay, still held the confidence of the ladies and they made him a favorite over the other two, who were strongly supported at about the same price.

Correction went off in front, and was never headed. Sims made a desperate effort to get up, but he was too late, and the best he could do was to beat Kingston for the place.

The third race was a maiden affair, five-furlong course. There was practically no favorite. It was a close race, and the bookies would let one write their own tickets on about half the lot.

Just how uncertain the race was may be seen from the fact that a 60-to-1 chance, Senator Grady, got away from the post, making all the running, under hands down. Jack of Spades, at 1 to 1, beat Equation, 8 to 1, for the place in 1:10.

The third race was a mile, straightaway, only three starters. Stonenell was the favorite, and he was backed heavily. The other two were Ver-dine and Rainbow. The latter's chances were little thought of, but he came in at 10 to 1, and beat Ver-dine, 10 to 1, and Rainbow, 10 to 1.

They finished as the talent picked them, Stonenell winning very easily.
The start was made somewhat around Cape May, and all the crowd could see a cloud of dust, during the first half of the race.

BANDIT STARR IS CAPTURED.

He and "Kid" Wilson Prisoners at Colorado Springs.

Officers "Got the Drop" on Them and They Made No Resistance.

DENVER, July 3.—Information has been received from Colorado Springs that Henry Starr and Kid Wilson, two members of the notorious Starr gang of train and bank robbers, who have caused the death of a dozen men and terrorized the Indian Territory and Arkansas for months, were arrested there this morning.

The men arrived at the Spaulding House at a late hour last night with Starr. They registered under the name Johnson and John Wilson, of Joplin, Mo.

The officers, learning who the two men were, were afraid to approach them outright and attempted to get the outlaws in a position to shoot on their way out, but they escaped.

Everything looked fresh and pretty.
A gentle breeze swept in from the ocean and circulated through the stand in a refreshing manner, and fully 10,000 people were present and saw a great card run off.

The track was in superb condition.
The Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend managements have decided that they will allow horses starting at this place to be scratched at any time, and it is possible to stable all the horses at this track.

Cycling for Cash Prizes a Success at Manhattan Field.

A Big Crowd in Attendance and the Track Fast.

MANHATTAN FIELD, NEW YORK.
July 3.—It looked enough like a holiday through here today to give the management the greatest encouragement in the new scheme of giving cash prizes for bicycle races. These spacious and beautiful grounds were more than confidently filled this afternoon, and the attendance was as handsome in its personnel as in numbers.

The day was a perfect one for racing, and the tip was "touted" that some new records were likely to be established.
The track, never a fast one for wheelmen, was in excellent shape, it having been banked on these dangerous turns and rolled and hardened until like lignum vitae.

To-day's races were held by the New York Cycling Association of America.
They were the inaugural races in the new cash prize league and for that matter were unusually important.

The first event was the quarter-mile by the winner.

WILLIE T. NICHOLSON HELD FOR PASSING TWO BUGS CHECKS.

He Is Fifteen Years Old and Likes Fne Clothing.

WILLIE T. NICHOLSON, aged fifteen, who resides at 61 Poplar street, Brooklyn, was held in $1,000 by Justice Meade this morning in the Tombs Police Court upon the charge of forgery.

Willie was employed by Lawyer Charles F. Brandt, of 140 Nassau street, as an office boy, and as he was very fond of nice clothes, he found his salary of three dollars a week totally inadequate to meet the demands of his taste.

Early in June two checks for $75 each were passed in the National Park Bank, and Charles F. Brandt's name was forged to each of them.

The signature was so cleverly imitated that Cashier Henry S. Boker had no hesitation in paying over the money and the checks were cashed.

On Saturday Willie presented another check calling for $75, but on this occasion Cashier Boker had some doubts and he detained the boy and summoned Detective Sergeant Doyle and Murphy.

The boy when arrested said that he had forged nine checks altogether, but he had only cashed two.

He said he was prompted to the deed by a boy named Smith, who worked in the same building, and that they divided the money and bought clothes.

After fixing his bail at $1,000 Justice Meade remanded Willie to the Tombs on the charge of forgery.

ASSIGNMENT SET ASIDE.

Judge McAdam Says There Was Fraud and Collusion.

Judge McAdam, in the Superior Court, Equity Term, today rendered a decision setting aside as fraudulent the assignment made by Morris Ginsburg to his brother-in-law and counsel, Max Hal-heimer, on Dec. 28, 1892.

In his opinion Judge McAdam said that it has been charged and proved that Ginsburg, in contemplation of his assignment, which in operation tended to divert the assets of the estate from the creditors, had procured the assignment to be made by his brother-in-law and counsel, Max Halheimer, on Dec. 28, 1892.

He said that the assignment was made for the purpose of defrauding the creditors, and that the assignment was made in violation of the provisions of the New York Insolvency Law.
